Do you comply with the new Work at Height
Regulations 2005?

Building owners and those that contract others to provide window cleaning services must ensure that:

- appropriate work equipment is selected and used
- those that work at height are competent

Your window cleaners may already be using the appropriate work equipment but . . .

Are they competent?

How do you measure their competence?

Are your window cleaners members of The National Register of Ladderless Window Cleaners?
